

Shopping for gifts for men is not an easy task, especially for the man who has everything! Rather than listening to complaints about crappy socks or another tie, find the perfect most “him” gift. No matter his age, interests, hobbies, or style you will find a great gift idea for the men on your list. I am Melissa from NorthlineExpress here to show you our top holiday gift ideas for men.

The Top 5 Gift Ideas for Men are...

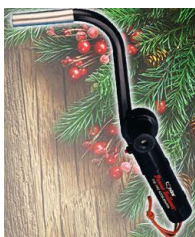

1. Leather long arm fireplace gloves

Our leather long armed hearth gloves are made with a fully insulated glove in glove design. The interior features a full lining of non-asbestos felt and welted seams to protect fingertips. A 100% split cowhide exterior stands up to the heat, resisting burn through. These hearth gloves measure 20" long and are the perfect gloves weather your guy has a fireplace, woodstove, or an outdoor wood burner.

2. Power Bellows

The future of fireplace bellows is here! The Power bellow pumps out a constant stream of air with only a push of a button. It makes starting a fire a snap. When you need to revive a dying fire, keep your hands and face away from the hot surfaces and use the Power Bellows. The long metal tube directs the current of air to where you want it. A sleek and compact design with a genuine leather thong makes it a great product to hang conveniently alongside your fireplace tool set. They are great for fireplaces, charcoal grills and campfires too!

3. AW Perkins Moisture Meter

Give your guy the power to improve the efficiency of your wood stove or fireplace with a firewood moisture meter. Wood heating enthusiasts know that wood should be properly dried to a moisture level between 15% to 20% before burning. With this tool, simply push the four prongs into the firewood's cut ends to quickly produce a moisture reading between 3% and 40% on a large backlit LCD display. It also includes a padded carrying case and 9v battery so it is ready to use right when they open it.

Keep efficiency in mind by giving an AW Perkins Moisture Meter as a gift this year.

4. Vogelzang Deluxe Airtight Barrel Stove Kit

With the Air-tight barrel stove kit and a little elbow grease you can turn an ordinary 55 gallon steel drum into a functioning wood stove. This Kit contains all of the components to complete a barrel stove, excluding the barrel. This is perfect for a guy who likes to work on projects in the garage all year long. Don't let the cold weather keep the men on your list from tinkering in their workshop during their time away from work! If they want to get really creative barrel stove kits can also make great smokers too!
