

Hi, I am Melissa from Northline Express and I am here to tell you about our Do It Yourself or DIY Chimney Liner kits. The particular kit that we are going to discuss today is 25 ft. Smooth Wall Chimney Liner kit with the Stove Top Adapter. This kit is also available in a 35 ft. length as well. You will choose the length that will be best suit your installation and then you will cut it to length according to the run of your chimney.

These are very economical chimney liner kit but do not think that just because you are cutting your budget that you will be cutting your quality. That is not the case with our DIY Chimney Liner. They are UL Listed and constructed of 316 stainless steel so they are going to be just as great as all of the other chimney liners on the market but they will be easier on your pocket book.

What you are going to get in the DIY Smooth-Wall Chimney Liner Kit with Stove Adapter:

The DIY Chimney Liner components that you will need to install your chimney liner will come all together in one convenient package. The package will include:

Chimney Liner – It is going to come nicely wrapped so it is easy to move around until you are ready to install your chimney liner.

Chimney Cap – The cap is going to sit on top of your chimney and it is also going to have a Spark Arrestor on the cap to help protect your roof and surrounding area from those flying embers.

Base Plate – This component is going to sit on top of your chimney and allow your liner to connect at the top of your run and it is also where your cap is going to connect to your chimney lining system as well.

Stove Top Adapter – This particular adapter is a straight adapter that is used for a fireplace insert that has a top vent or an angled vent. It would also be used for those types of venting woodstoves as well.

Remember when you are getting a DIY Chimney Liner you are not only saving money because you can install it yourself but you are also saving money and getting twice the quality of product. This is another great product from Northline Express, home of the “Buy and Try” Satisfaction Guarantee.
